

Welcome

Urdd - providing the best for the children and young people of Wales.

From sports to the arts, humanitarian work to volunteering, the Urdd offers unique, exciting and unforgettable experiences to the youth of Wales through the medium of Welsh. Whether these experiences are at our camps, in the community or school, they are valuable experiences that enable our members to make a positive contribution in their communities and to develop a wide range of skills.

Since the Urdd's establishment in 1922, 4 million children and young people have taken advantage of everything the organisation offers - from the Eisteddfod to overseas travel opportunities and numerous apprenticeship schemes. Increasing the use of the Welsh language in areas is at the heart of all our work.

Our four residential centres are located in beautiful locations across Wales, offering pupils adventurous day trips or perfect residential breaks. Whatever your needs - the Urdd is here for you and for the children and young people of Wales.

Urdd Provision and Curriculum for Wales 2022

The Urdd's provision supports the four key areas of the Curriculum for Wales by offering enriching experiences in our camps, in our communities and schools.

Through the residential breaks we offer, the arts, literary experiences, the Urdd Eisteddfod, sports and health activities, we can support you as you plan your school curriculum.

The provision:

- Supports the health and wellbeing of learners
- Increases the spoken and written use of Welsh
- Promotes robust social and emotional development
- Promotes collaboration and communication
- Provides a local, national and international context through various projects
- Gives a taste of careers and work related experiences
- Expands experience, knowledge, and skills
- Supports your school's Welsh Language Charter Scheme

Relevance to Youth Work in Wales

All Urdd provision for 11+ year olds supports and enables young people to thrive, by offering opportunities that facilitate their personal, social and educational development in activities and settings where young people can enjoy themselves, feel safe and are appreciated.

Provision across all Urdd departments is in line with the values of Youth Work in Wales Principles and Purposes and works towards increasing the use of Welsh among young people.

Your school can take advantage of what the Urdd offers young people by contacting the relevant department within our organisation.

A collection of educational resources

In 2022 a collection of Urdd educational resources, commissioned by Welsh Government funding, will be available to you via the Hwb.

The Urdd complies with the Youth Work registration requirements of the Education Workforce Council and complies with the Quality Mark for Youth Work in Wales.

Community

The Urdd's Community Team focuses on offering various arts opportunities as well supporting volunteers and provide children and young people opportunities to socialise through the medium of Welsh. outside the classroom. The team arranges various events, from digital to humanitarian and face to face, supporting communities across Wales.

What we offer

We offer the following services and opportunities:

- A wide range of community art opportunities and activities, after school, on weekends and during the school holidays, at our residential centres and digitally, which meet the needs of children and young people living in that particular area.
- Support and develop new Adrannau (Junior Urdd clubs) and Aelwydydd (Senior Urdd Clubs).
- Encourage and support schools to compete at Local and County Eisteddfod.
- Opportunities for youngsters to volunteer in our arts activities and gain accreditations through our national volunteering scheme.
- Create national and international arts opportunities for our older members e.g. Our National Urdd Theatre, Urdd International Choir, Eisteddfod Scholarships and opportunities to volunteer on our international projects.
- Promote and encourage schools to visit our residential centres.

Youth Officers

We have qualified youth officers working in the following areas who provide targeted youth services to secondary schools and community services:

- Anglesey
- Denbighshire
- Flint/Wrexham

Apprenticeships

The Urdd Apprenticeship Department work with a number of partners to develop a range of Welsh-medium apprenticeships and training that offer opportunities to learn, develop and increase confidence. From sports apprenticeships to qualifications and accreditations, we offer a variety of opportunities for all ages.

What we offer?

Develop the skills of your staff

If your staff are interested in developing their skills in the sports sector, or you want to increase and expand your school's sports provision - we can help strengthen the skills of your staff.

The Urdd offers three relevant programmes:

- Level 2 Apprenticeship in Activity Leadership
- Level 3 Apprenticeship in Supporting Teaching and Learning in Physical Educations and School Sport
- Level 3 Apprenticeship in Sports Development

Each program includes at least 3 qualifications and there are several learning and development opportunities available whilst completing the apprenticeship.

Employability workshop and qualifications

The Department offers a range of qualifications, training courses or workshops tailored to your school's needs. From full qualifications to bespoke training courses we can support and meet your needs.

Sports and Outdoor Activity Apprenticeships

Receive training, work experience and employment. These opportunities are open to young people aged 16+ and 18+ years old, with the programmes usually starting in September. Why not encourage your pupils to register their details on our website.

Essential Skills HWB (Numeracy, Communication and Digital Literacy)

The Urdd's Essential Skills HWB offers numeracy, communication, and digital literacy qualifications from entry level 2 to level 3, all through the medium of Welsh. Bespoke sessions can be created to meet your needs or join our regular virtual session that can be accessed from any part of Wales.

Urdd Outdoor Activity Service

An exciting part of the Urdd's work, the Outdoor Service offers adventurous experiences for children, young people and adults. Our qualified instructors can offer activities tailored to your needs, in your local community or school.

Duke of Edinburgh Award Expeditions

Not sure how or where to complete your Duke of Edinburgh expeditions? The service provides expeditions for all levels of the Award in Wales (Bronze, Silver and Gold). These are available through the medium of Welsh or bilingually. Contact us to arrange an expedition.

Activities

As well as various adventurous outdoor activities we offer the following special packages:

Learning outside the classroom

Learning outside the classroom is about raising young people's achievement through an organised, powerful approach to learning in which direct experience is of prime importance. Meaningful learning occurs through acquiring skills through real life hands-on activities.

Micro-Adventure

Available to primary school children, the course encourages children to go on an adventure locally, without expensive equipment or the need to travel long distances. This can be organised on the school premises or locally.

Five steps to mental wellbeing

A joint project in partnership with the Health Board to highlight the benefits of the outdoors to mental health.

Eisteddfod yr Urdd

Eisteddfod yr Urdd provides amazing cultural experiences for over 55,000 children and young people every year. With over 400 competitions, from singing to cooking, dancing to designing websites, and writing stories to starring on stage - there's something here for everyone. And if you're a member of the Urdd, then competing is free!

Your competing journey will start in February in the Eisteddfod Cylch (Local) and Rhanbarth (Regional), and the winners will go on to the Urdd National Eisteddfod - one of Europe's largest travelling festivals which attracts over 100,000 visitors and is held during May half term. The Eisteddfod festival is full of fun, workshops, gigs, tasty food and lots more!

Competing in the Urdd Eisteddfod is also one of the Siarter Iaith targets, which inspires children to use the Welsh language.

Activities and projects

The Urdd Eisteddfod also offers a range of arts projects throughout the year:

Cefn Llwyfan

A series of digital talks and workshops for young people aged 14-25 who wish to follow a career in the arts, with experts from the performing world and from behind the scenes!

Talwrn

A poetry competition for young poets aged 14-25, competing in a special poetry tournament. Each team will be given a mentor to help them write their poems along their journey to the final.

Welsh Learners

The Urdd Eisteddfod has many competitions especially for Welsh learners of all ages, to support and encourage them to use the Welsh language daily.

Urdd Magazines

The Urdd's magazines are now digital and completely free. Cip is a magazine for primary age readers and IAW is for secondary Welsh learners. Have the teachers and pupils at your school subscribed yet?

We are proud to offer fun, informative and appealing Welsh language content, available for teachers to use in the classroom. You can also contact us with any ideas or suggestions, and opportunities for your pupils to be included within the magazines.

IAW magazine

IAW is a magazine for secondary Welsh learners, up to GCSE age, that supports learning in the classroom and beyond. Worksheets within the magazine complement curriculum requirements and support pupils' academic development through engaging, up-to-date content.

We also encourage readers to contribute to the magazine by writing letters or offering work or projects from school, which is a great opportunity for them to practice their oral, written, and editorial skills in Welsh.

Cip magazine

Cip magazine is full of cartoons, activities, jokes, stories and puzzles, all through the medium of Welsh. Aimed at 7-11-year-olds, it now includes the brilliant comic Mellten.

A podcast also goes hand in hand with the magazine, 'Podlediad Cylchgrawn Cip', to provide our subscribers with accessible readings of Cip's stories. They are also available in video form on our website.
