A Word of Welcome

The Urdd National Eisteddfod, Dur a Môr, Parc Margam a'r Fro 2025 already promises to be an Eisteddfod to remember with volunteers in the area working tirelessly and diligently to ensure that in collaboration with national volunteers and of course, the Urdd's dedicated and passionate staff. Arrangements are going smoothly - but we need your help in ensuring the success of the festival, as we need competitors! Wondering if 2025 will be your big year as a competitor? There's only one way to find out, which is by taking part! As such, the first step is in this volume, which includes texts for each competition. There is certainly something for everyone in the competitions of this special festival and golden opportunities to develop and nurture the creative, performing and composed talents of our children and young people. I would like to encourage all Urdd members to practise their talents, in whatever areas they may be and wish them all the best in their approach and preparations.

Above all, I sincerely hope that our youth will enjoy the process - whether socially while co-practising with peers in mass competitions or as they work individually and find satisfaction in seeing the fruits of their labour develop.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the coaches and those who will play such a leading role in encouraging our children and young people to compete by delivering the texts on the classroom floor, at home and socially in clubs and Households. In offering these opportunities, you offer much more than an opportunity to compete - it is an opportunity to develop confidence and a means of creating valuable memories.

We look forward to welcoming you warmly to Margam Park, to the Urdd National Eisteddfod, Dur a Môr, Parc Margam a'r Fro 2025.

GWENNO MAIR DAVIES
Chair of the Arts Board

Urdd National Eisteddfod - General Rules

The rules stated below are relevant to every Eisteddfod – ‘Cylch’ (Local), ‘Rhanbarth’ (Regional) and ‘Cenedlaethol’ (National).

What is an Eisteddfod?

The Urdd National Eisteddfod (‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd’), one of Europe’s largest youth touring festivals that attracts around 90,000 visitors each year, will once again be held during Whitsun week at the end of May. The Urdd Eisteddfod week is the pinnacle of around three years’ hard work by local volunteers. It attracts a lot of attention from the press including TV, radio, the web and local and national newspapers.

The Eisteddfod is a competitive festival with over 15,000 children and young people under the age of 25 competing during the Eisteddfod week in various competitions such as singing, dancing and performing. They have been whittled down from around 40,000 competitors across Wales, having won their place following local (‘Eisteddfod Gylch’) and regional (‘Eisteddfod Rhanbarth’) rounds held in the spring months leading up to the Urdd National Eisteddfod (‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd’).

The three Pavilions, Coch, Gwyn & Gwyrdd (Red, White & Green, representing the Urdd colours) are the hub of the Eisteddfod. Surrounding these Pavilions on the ‘Maes’ are a myriad of colourful stalls offering a range of activities for all the family – from climbing and sport sessions to live bands, children’s shows with some well-known TV characters and a fun fair. Also, the Arts Exhibition displays all the winners of the Art, Design & Technology competitions.

In 2025, the Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd (Urdd National Eisteddfod) will be held in Margam, and in 2026, the festival will visit Anglesey. We hope to see you there!

Eisteddfod yr Urdd Terminology

‘Rhanbarth’ (Regional) – County round
(there are 18 Urdd Counties in Wales)

Compliance with the Rules All competitors, coaches, parents, and supporters commit to complying with all Eisteddfod competition rules, general conditions and the Urdd’s code of conduct. The Urdd guidance and Code of Conduct is available for all competitors, coaches, and parents to view by clicking www.urdd.cymru/en/about-and/policy-studies/confidentiality.

Urdd Gobaith Cymru expects all competitors, instructors / teachers and parents to commit to a spirit of fair play in all aspects of the Urdd’s competitions and activities.

Official Names of Urdd Branches

- 1 Adran Ysgol (School ‘Adran’) - All branches operating within a Primary, Secondary or Lifelong Learning School or College.
- 2 Adran / Aelwyd - A Community branch of the Urdd, open to all members conducting meetings outside of school hours and organization with a program of activities throughout the year.
- 3 Performing / Specialist Branches - These Urdd branches are welcome to compete in the Eisteddfod in the relevant age categories, except for competitions restricted to Schools, ‘Adran’ or ‘Aelwyd’. For further guidance, please contact the Eisteddfod Department, Glan-Ilyn.

- 4 Competing Outside Wales - Competitors who live beyond the Welsh border can compete in a designated Regional Eisteddfod. The normal registration procedure must be followed.

To be eligible to compete, all branches must register as an Urdd branch before their regional competition deadline. For more information, contact the aelodaeth@urdd.org.

Urdd Eisteddfod Language Policy

- 1 Welsh is the language of the Eisteddfod.
- 2 Background Music - Where background music is permitted, any instrumental music or song in the Welsh language can be used, but you must seek permission from the copyright holders. See page 10 for more information.

Who can compete?

- 1 Members - You must be a member of Urdd Gobaith Cymru to register to compete in the Urdd Eisteddfod. Membership is arranged via our website: urdd.cymru/membership.
- 2 Accessibility - The Urdd Eisteddfod is committed to providing equal experience and opportunities and to make every reasonable effort to make the competing experience as enjoyable as possible for all.
- 3 Competition restrictions - All members of the Urdd are entitled to compete in the ‘Eisteddfod Gylch’ (Local Eisteddfod).
- 4 The Winner - The winner will represent the ‘Rhanbarth’ (Region) at the ‘Genedlaethol’ (Urdd National Eisteddfod). Where this is not possible, the Eisteddfod Department may invite the second at the ‘Eisteddfod Rhanbarth’ to take their place. The Eisteddfod Department can invite the second as well as the first to represent the ‘Rhanbarth’ at the ‘Eisteddfod Genedlaethol’ (National). The relevant competitors will be notified shortly after the last Eisteddfod ‘Rhanbarth’ has been held. In the Region where the Eisteddfod is held, the first and second of each competition will be invited to represent the ‘Rhanbarth’ at the ‘Genedlaethol’ (Urdd National Eisteddfod).
- 5 Age for competing - Competitors must be within the competition age on the 31 August after the current Eisteddfod. For example, for a ‘14 and under 25’ competition applicants must have turned 14, but not have turned 25. The date of birth of each competitor is requested before the Urdd National Eisteddfod. If there is doubt about the age of any competitor, the Eisteddfod Organizers will have the right to ask to see the member’s birth certificate.

- 6 Competing
 - i) All members of the Urdd can compete in the area where they live, where they receive their full-time education, or with the branch where they practise (with regards to group competition).
 - ii) All members competing in multiple individual competitions must do so in the same branch. It is not permitted to compete in more than one Local / Regional round in individual competitions.
 - iii) All 19-25 years old duets, trios or quartets must compete where the majority of members live or receive their education. Where there is no majority, you must contact the Eisteddfod Department, Glan-Ilyn, for advice before registering.

Members under the age of 19 must compete in a branch where they live, where they receive their full-time education, or with the branch where they practise with the group competition in question.

iv) A member may belong to more than one branch – a School 'Adran' and an 'Aelwyd', for example. That member can compete for either branch in different competitions. However, they must choose to compete as an individual in one branch or the other, but in group competitions the member can associate themselves with the branch that taught the group in that specific competition

v) Competitors are not permitted to compete for more than one branch in the same competition or belong to more than one group in the same competition.

7 Individual Member - Any Urdd Member is permitted to compete as an Individual Member if they are not affiliated to a branch in the Region where their home is, or where they receive their education.

8 Number in School Branches - In the competitions where the number of pupils in a school branch is limited, they should be counted from reception to Year 6 on 31 January (prior to the Eisteddfod). In Lifelong Learning schools, count all relevant pupils up to Year 6.

General Rules for Welsh Learners (Dysgwyr Cymraeg)

1 Members where one parent in the home can speak Welsh should not compete as learners in individual competitions.

2 Members moving from Welsh Medium to English-medium education are allowed to compete as a learner in group competitions for learners only.

PRIMARY - Learners are classified as members who have not followed or are not following a Welsh programme of study in the Foundation Phase and in Key Stage 2. If they are latecomers, moving from a non-Welsh medium school to a school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh, they are permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.

SECONDARY - Learners are members who have not followed or are not following a Welsh Programme of Study in Key Stages 2 or 3. If they are latecomers, moving from a non-Welsh medium Primary or Secondary school to a Secondary school where the majority of pupils study through the medium of Welsh, they are permitted to compete as learners for their first three years at the school.

3 Authenticity: When registering competitors, it is understood that branch leaders guarantee the authenticity of every competitor in the Welsh Learners' Section competitions.

4 The General rules of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (Urdd National Eisteddfod), in addition to the competition rules set out in each section also apply to learners' competitions.

How to Compete?

1 Register to compete - Everyone who wishes to compete must register on our website before the respective national deadlines. See 'Dates to Remember' on page 13.

2 Verifying Period - There will be a verifying period of three working days for members to check the information after the closing date. Guardians can check their children's competitions online, alerting the branch / school / Urdd of any problem.

3 Late Registration - Once the verifying period has expired the system will close and it will not be possible to add competitors or modify information unless an administration fee is paid. Late registration can be made by paying the administration fee up to 48 hours before the first performance / Eisteddfod.

4 Set pieces - Competitors must learn the set piece noted in the syllabus and be prepared to perform the whole work at each Eisteddfod stage. Copies of words and/or music are not permitted except in the instrumental competitions. Competitors must use the correct edition(s) and key(s) noted in the Syllabus. Some solo competitions offer a choice of keys to suit the vocal range of competitors and these will be noted in the syllabus.

5 Eisteddfod Rhanbarth (Regional Eisteddfod) - Each competitor must appear on the stage at the 'Eisteddfod Rhanbarth' unless noted otherwise (page 74). No individual, party or choir may compete in the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (Urdd National), unless they have been officially sent there following the result at the 'Eisteddfod Rhanbarth'.

6 Consistency - All competitors must perform the same piece(s) throughout the Eisteddfod journey, from the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' (Local) to the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' (Urdd National). It is not permitted to change competitors between Eisteddfodau. Everyone in group competitions is encouraged to list reserves in order to avoid any issues that may arise.

Eisteddfod Rules

1 If a competitor breaks one of the General Rules or individual Subject Rules in the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' (National Eisteddfod), then they will not be awarded a prize.

2 Joint winners - Joint placings (first, second and third) will not be awarded in any Eisteddfod competition except when there are 4 in the competition, where equalling only 3rd place is allowed. If joint winners' names are sent to the Eisteddfod Department, neither competitor will be accepted. In the same manner, it is not possible to share prizes in the 'Composing and Creating' competitions.

3 Specific Time Rule - No performance may exceed the stated time specified in the Syllabus. If the competitor's performance exceeds the allotted time at the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' and/or Rhanbarth (Local and/or Regional) a note will be placed in the adjudication, and they will be verbally informed by the Eisteddfod Organizer. The performance must be modified by the next Eisteddfod.

By the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod), it is not permitted for any performance to be over the specified time limit - competitors exceeding time limits will not be awarded any prizes.

Remember, tempos can change during a live performance on a large stage. When preparing a programme or track, make sure you have (at least) 10-30 seconds to spare at the end - just in case!

Note: The Urdd Eisteddfod's official timings will be used to decide if a competitor has exceeded the permitted time.

4 Before Competing - All competitors must be prepared to perform when called. If they do not register within half an hour of their allotted time, the Eisteddfod Department has the right to remove them from the competition.

5 Official Accompanists - Vocal soloists and duettists must use the Official Eisteddfod Accompanists on-stage. This does not include instrumental soloists, the Solo 19-25 years old, the Solo or the Duet / Ensemble from a Musical (competitions 162-164).

Procedures and processes

1 The Adjudicator's Decision - The adjudicators' decision in each case will be final within the rules and guidelines of the festival. Any appeal should be made in writing and brought to the attention of the Eisteddfod Organizers or Urdd Officers within an hour following the conclusion of any competition. The matter may also be discussed verbally. Under exceptional circumstances, an Appeal Panel will be established. There must be robust reasons for establishing an Appeal Panel. Disagreeing with the adjudicator's opinion is not an adequate reason for complaint. The main adjudicator of each competition is the name that appears first in the programme. The decision of the Chair of the Eisteddfod and Arts Board and the Chair of the Urdd will be final on the competitive matters of all Urdd Gobaith Cymru Eisteddfodau.

2 Adjudication - A short adjudication will be available to all competitors after the competition has appeared on stage. A written adjudication cannot be guaranteed to competitors for composition work. A list of the winners will be published on our website and app, as well as a volume of winning literary compositions and an exhibition of the winners in the Art, Design and Technology Section. The adjudication will be provided in Welsh, but in some circumstances it will be possible to provide a translation which will be available after the Eisteddfod.

3 Staging Competitors - The winners in each 'Rhanbarth' (Region) will compete on one of the stages of the Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd (Urdd National Eisteddfod), be it a Pavilion, an external stage or competition venue.

4 Adjudicators and Accompanists - Adjudicators and accompanists are not permitted to instruct or teach any competitor within the sections in which they are adjudicating or accompanying between the 1st September and the Eisteddfod.

Adjudicators at the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol' must not adjudicate in the Eisteddfodau 'Cylch' or 'Rhanbarth' in the same section in which they will adjudicate at the 'Genedlaethol'. The Director reserves the right to invite adjudicators at the last minute in order to complete adjudications at any/or all Urdd Eisteddfodau.

5 Postponing an Eisteddfod - The Urdd reserves the right to curtail, postpone or cancel any Urdd Eisteddfod if it is deemed necessary due to exceptional circumstances. The Urdd will endeavour to ensure that all Festival arrangements are efficient but shall not be held accountable for any loss that may occur during any Eisteddfod in the Urdd's name.

6 Staging a Competition - The Urdd reserves the right not to stage all competitions on the main stages of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd'.

7 Public Performances - When submitting a registration form, the person of care acknowledges that all the Urdd Eisteddfod activities are public and competitors will appear on stage in front of those who attend the event. The names of competitors and branches / schools will be announced from the stages in the Eisteddfod and will be published on the Urdd's internal administration documents. At the 'Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod), the names of competitors and branches will be shared with the press including television and radio companies. There is a possibility that the names and images of Urdd Eisteddfod competitors will appear publicly on the Urdd website (e.g. Eisteddfod results) and other public platforms including but not limited to newspapers, local papers, websites and on the Urdd and other social media accounts. The 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (Urdd National Eisteddfod) will be broadcasted live on TV and radio and extensively from the 'Maes' (see rule 9 below). It is the person of care's responsibility to notify the Urdd of any reason not to disclose information about any member. The Urdd is willing to comply, co-operate and facilitate the process to ensure that every member of the organization can compete in the Urdd Eisteddfod in accordance with the member's wishes.

8 Copyright - It is illegal to make additional copies of music, poetry, or any published work. Please see page 10 for further details and guidance on how to secure a publisher's permission to perform a piece of work in public.

The competitor is responsible for securing the right to perform their 'own choice' piece(s) in public, and for ensuring that any translation is an official translation registered and approved by the publisher. Proof is requested that these rights have been granted. It is the responsibility of the broadcaster to secure the right to broadcast a piece of work. The Urdd can provide an example of a letter to be sent to the publishers with suitable wording, as well as contact details of the various publishers. Failure to secure the right to perform may mean that competitor(s) are not entitled to perform in public at an Eisteddfod. When using a copyright piece in an originally composed performance (e.g. Stand-up / Action Song etc), it is the competitor's responsibility to ensure all appropriate permissions to use the piece. Such permission must allow the Urdd, S4C and / or any third party with the publishers permission and/or PRS, to make the performance available without restrictions, globally, in all mediums or forms of distributions (which exist now or may be developed in the future). Copyright assistance is available by calling the Welsh Department, PRS for Music on 020 3741 4033 or emailing welshyprogrammes@prsformusic.com. There is no need to ensure permission to use set pieces in the Syllabus. We encourage everyone to choose songs that will not create any difficulty in terms of broadcasting. Some composers / groups should be avoided when it is not possible to secure copyright to broadcast the song. For further details and guidance on how to ensure permission to perform, see page 10.

9 Broadcasting - When registering to compete or attend the Urdd Eisteddfod, the member or person of care acknowledges the possibility that their picture or performance will be recorded and broadcast. The Urdd will be entitled to use them for the Urdd's purposes in the future including broadcasting on S4C, online, on our social media and on BBC Radio Cymru, without seeking the individual's further permission or payment of any other royalties or payment.

10 Publishing - The Urdd reserves the right to publish all or some of the winning 'Composing and Creative' compositions to be used for Urdd purposes in future, without seeking further permission from authors or paying any royalties or any other payment.

11 Changes to the Syllabus - Any changes to the Syllabus will appear on the Urdd Eisteddfod website. If there are any differences between the Welsh and English syllabuses, the Welsh version will be prioritised.

12 Prizes - An Eisteddfod certificate and medal will be awarded to the first, second and third in every competition at the Urdd National Eisteddfod. In group competitions, one medal will be given, but more medals can be bought from the Eisteddfod Department

13 Stage Measurements - The size of stages at the 'Genedlaethol' (Urdd National Eisteddfod) are: 'Pafiliwn Coch' (Red) - 6m x 4m; 'Pafiliwn Gwyn' (White) - (10m x 8m); 'Pafiliwn Gwyrdd' (Green) - (10m x 8m).

The size of the stage in the Eisteddfodau Cylch and Rhanbarth may differ, and performances should be adapted to fit the size of the stage available.

14 Instruments - You cannot use your own drum kit on the various stages of the 'Eisteddfod Genedlaethol yr Urdd' (National). A set of drums will be provided on all stages and 3 timpani for the orchestral competitions (only). Drum kits will not be provided at the 'Eisteddfod Gylch' or Rhanbarth' (Local / Regional) where you are required to bring your own kit.

If you wish to use the timpani in the orchestral competitions, you must inform the Eisteddfod Department by the 1st of March. (See 'Dates to Remember', page 13).

15 Eisteddfod Organisation - The organising of the Regional Eisteddfod is the Regional Committee's responsibility. Similarly, the organisation of the Local Eisteddfod is deputised to the Local Committee. Urdd National Eisteddfod rules apply to all Local and Regional Eisteddfodau. If disagreements arise, the Local and Regional officers must consult with the Eisteddfod department before making any decisions.

Own Choice and Copyright

It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure all appropriate permissions for the content of any own choice pieces within the performance.
